

Shaping Futures. Changing Lives.

Earn while you learn with TILL Pathways - a new training program. Earn up to $4,200 and 3 college credits!

FOLLOW THE PATH TO A NEW OPPORTUNITY

- 3 FREE college credits from Bay Path University - valued at $1,200+
- $4,200 payment upon course completion
- 14 weekly remote learning sessions
- Courses are asynchronous to fit your schedule
- Up to 15 TILL Staff members will be accepted into each session. See reverse for session dates.
- Open to staff in any TILL program or department. Must be a MA resident.

READY TO MAKE 2026 A FANTASTIC YEAR?

Free college credits, a high-quality learning experience, PLUS a generous financial stipend up to $4,200 for class participation and documented expenses are all part of this new and unique TILL training program developed in partnership with Bay Path University.

Who Can Apply?

Staff members who currently work for TILL, in any department, and want to continue on a career path in human services working directly with clients with medical specialization are encouraged to apply. No minimum length of employment is required to participate; new staff members are welcome to apply.

Program Overview:

This training program consists of 14 weekly remote sessions of instruction by a Bay Path professor about providing direct support to individuals with intellectual disabilities, acquired brain injury and autism. The program includes regularly scheduled meetings with the Bay Path/TILL project navigator. Courses are asynchronous to work with your busy schedule.

Do I Really Earn $4,200?

Yes, upon completion of the program requirement, paid in quarterly amounts during the course period.

What's the Catch?

There is no catch, but there are program requirements you'll have to fulfill as part of participating in a federally-funded grant program. Details are on the reverse.

Program Requirements

Interested employees must submit an application to participate and must agree to the following:

- Attend all 14 remote sessions (Must attend sessions during free time, not during paid working hours, as you will receive a $100 stipend for each session as part of the $4,200.)
- Remain in good standing with all of TILL's requirements and in your current job at TILL
- Make a two-year signed commitment to work for TILL on a full-time basis following the completion of the training program

What You'll Get in Return

- 3 college credits from Bay Path University for the 14-week training program (a value of more than $1,200)
- A financial stipend of $4,200 paid over the training period.

This generous payment is in exchange for your time to take the training and may cover miscellaneous expenses incurred for the purposes of training, including:

- Child or other family member care
- Purchase of a laptop or other electronic device needed to complete the coursework
- Or assistance with unforeseen housing expenses such as a sudden spike in utility or heating expenses.

How Are Participants Selected?

- The selection committee, comprised of Bay Path and TILL personnel, will select 15 candidates for each training session and may create a waiting list for overflow candidates.
- Participants for each session will be chosen from any existing waiting list and new applications.

What are the Session Dates? When are Applications Due?

Session 1: January - May 1, 2026 (session full)

Session 2: May 11 - August 21, 2026 (Applications due April 15)

Session 3: August 31 - December 18, 2026 (Applications due July 30)

Session 4: January 11 - April 30, 2027 (Application due December 10)

Note: Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Dates are subject to change.

More Fineprint

- Must prove you are a MA resident.
- Cannot work more than 40 hours per week during the training period.
- No interruptions in employment or leaves of absence are permitted during the training period and two-year working commitment
